Current Scope of Practice

John W. Blancett represents U.S. and U.K. clients in insurance, banking, commercial law and litigation. He has represented insurers in connection with financial institution bonds, commercial crime bonds, professional indemnity policies and directors and officers liability policies throughout North America, Europe and Asia. He has also successfully defended insurers at trial and on appeal in state and federal courts throughout New York.

Mr. Blancett has drafted policies for insurers covering fidelity, commercial crime, errors and omissions, professional services liability and directors and officers liability.

He has extensive experience in international banking and commercial law. As former senior counsel to an international bank and its global subsidiaries, he has specialized expertise in bank regulation, commercial paper, funds transfers, payment systems, securities, letters of credit and bank fraud.

Affiliations, Activities and Accomplishments

Mr. Blancett is admitted to practice law in New York and Georgia. He is a member of the American Bar Association's Tort Trial & Insurance Practice Section.

Education

Mr. Blancett received his J.D. from Emory University School of Law and his B.A., cum laude, from Wake Forest University.
