Current Scope of Practice

Martin J. O'Leary handles an array of professional liability insurance matters, including directors and officers liability insurance, employment practice liability policies, errors and omissions coverage and fidelity and crime policies.

Affiliations, Activities and Accomplishments

Mr. O'Leary is licensed to practice in all federal courts in California. He is a member of the Bar Association of San Francisco and of PLUS, and served on the Northern California Chapter Steering Committee.

In addition, he has been awarded an AV rating (recognizing the highest professional excellence) by the Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings system.

Publications

Mr. O'Leary has been a speaker at Bar Association of San Francisco events on professional liability insurance matters and for the American Bar Association's Fidelity and Surety Law Committee.

He served as editor of the 2007 and contributor to the 2011 editions of the Directors & Officers Liability Insurance Deskbook, published by the American Bar Association. Originally published in 1998, this book reflects on this history of directors and officers exposures and the insurance coverage called upon to address those risks, discussing existing issues as well as current topics and cases that reflect the dramatic legal changes over the past several years.

Education

Mr. O'Leary received his B.A. (1978), with honors, from the University of California at Santa Barbara. He received his J.D. (1982) from Santa Clara University School of Law.

Following graduation from law school, he clerked for the late Honorable Calvin K. Ashland, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge for the Central District of California and member of the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel.
