

Jeffrey W. Dillon
 Associate, New York, New York

Business Litigation
 Insurance Practices

JEFFREY W. DILLON

212.422.0202 tel
 212.422.0925 fax
 jeffrey.dillon@sedgwicklaw.com

Current Scope of Practice

Jeffrey W. Dillon provides insurance and reinsurance litigation defense on behalf of domestic and foreign clients in diverse coverage liability matters. His legal practice encompasses professional indemnity, commercial property and casualty, errors and omissions, financial institutions bonds and general liability.

Prior to entering private practice, Mr. Dillon served as judicial law clerk to the Hon. Edward W. Beglin, Jr., A.J.S.C., New Jersey Superior Court (ret.).

Publications

- “Getting Back Improperly Obtained Policy Benefits: Rescissory Damages Do Not Require Causal Connection Under New York Law,” Sedgwick’s Insurance Law Update (March 2012).
- “To Arbitrate or Not: Fifth Circuit Looks to the Supreme Court,” Sedgwick’s Insurance Law Update (April 2010).
- “NY Court Enforces Exclusion for Damage to ‘Particular Part’ of Property on Which Insured Worked,” Sedgwick’s Insurance Law Update (August 2009).

Affiliations, Activities and Accomplishments

Mr. Dillon is admitted in New York (2005) and New Jersey (2003) and before the U.S. District Courts for the District of New Jersey (2003), and the Southern (2010) and Eastern (2010) Districts of New York. He is certified by the State of New Jersey as a mediator in civil actions. Mr. Dillon is a member of the New York County Bar Association, the New York State Bar Association, the American Bar Association and the Association of Defense Trial Attorneys (ADTA).

Education

Mr. Dillon received his J.D. (2003) from Fordham University School of Law, where he served on the Fordham International Law Journal. He received a B.A. (1999) from Brown University, where he was editor-in-chief of the Brown Journal of World Affairs.